

Health Equity Certificate

at Wake Forest School of Medicine

Apply for the 2021-22 Cohort by August 31, 2021:
<https://redcap.link/HECApp>

Transportation
Education Partnership Food Insecurity
Care Community Communication
Culture Wellness Engagement
Underserved Disparity Housing Assets
Trust Resource Service Learning
Social Determinants Discrimination Equity Research

Learners in the Health Equity Certificate will:

- Engage in meaningful partnerships with community organizations
- Describe the social determinants of health and how they relate to health equity on local, regional and national levels
- Conduct translational research aimed at improving health disparities
- Innovate and improve the care delivery process as part of the Learning Health System

Community Engagement

Mentorship

In person and Virtual learning

Who can participate?

Any student enrolled in Wake Forest School of Medicine, Physician Assistant,
Graduate School or Nursing Program, or a Resident or Fellow, is eligible.

What is the program duration?

One academic year, or until all required components are complete.

Program Directors:

Nancy Denizard-Thompson, MD, Internal Medicine

Kimberly Montez, MD, MPH, Pediatrics

Kristen G. Hairston, MD, Endocrinology and Metabolism

Allison Caban-Holt, PhD, MACHE

Brenda Latham-Sadler, MD, Family Medicine

Questions?

Contact Program Administrator:

Sarah Langdon, MPH, MCHES

slangdon@wakehealth.edu

Wake Forest[®]
School of Medicine

Maya Angelou Center for Health Equity